

Community College of Philadelphia
Fox Rothschild
Center for Law and Society

presents a

SHH!

SILENCE AND THE LAW
EVENT

THE SNITCHING PHENOMENON
AND WITNESS INTIMIDATION:
EXAMINING SILENCE
ABOUT CRIME

Join us for a day of enlightening presentations that explore causes and effects of silence as part of our Shh! Silence and the Law series of programs.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2010 | ROOM C2-28

WHEN SILENCE KILLS: THE SNITCHING PHENOMENON AND PROSECUTING CRIMINALS IN PHILADELPHIA

9:30 to 10:50 a.m. | Lecture & Discussion

THE SNITCHING PROJECT: A BRIEF HISTORY AND CURRENT RESEARCH

11:00 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. | Lecture & Discussion

SPEAKING OF SNITCHING: THE SNITCHING PHENOMENON AND ITS IMPACT

12:30 to 1:50 p.m. | Film Clip Screening & Discussion

WISE GUYS AND SILENCE

2:00 to 3:20 p.m. | Lecture & Discussion

"THANK YOU FOR NOT SNITCHING," AN EPISODE OF "THE BOONDOCKS"

3:30 to 4:50 p.m. | Screening & Discussion

For more information and schedule additions, visit www.ccp.edu/site/law_center/programs_activities.php

All events are open to the public.
No RSVP required.

Co-sponsored by the Office of Student Activities

The Path to Possibilities™

Community College of Philadelphia

www.ccp.edu